

Buckeye has 25 Master Planned Communities which are at various stages of development and over the last 7 years Buckeye has experienced a rapid increase in development activity, and is currently the 7th fastest growing city over 50,000 in the U.S.

Buckeye Population Growth

Since 2000, Buckeye’s population has grown from 6,537 to an estimated 70,000 today, or an increase of over 63,000 people. Growth is actually expected to increase in the coming years, as other areas within metro Phoenix are built out or are constrained by physical and geopolitical limitations (i.e. Indian communities, U.S. Forest Service lands, mountain ranges, etc.). Buckeye’s entitled land can support an ultimate buildout population of over 1.5 million, which would make it the second most populous city in Arizona after the City of Phoenix.

Year	Population	Annual Growth Rate
2000 census	6,537	--
2010 census	50,876	+67.8%
2015 census	62,582	+4.6%
Current City estimate	70,000	+5.8%
2020 MAG projection	87,700	+9.0%
2030 MAG projection	147,600	+6.8%
2040 MAG projection	310,800	+11.1%

Single Family Residential Permits

Since 2011 the City has issued over 7,500 housing permits and 2018 is expected to be another record year. A 7+ year reflection on the growth of housing permits issued in the City of Buckeye is as follows:

Year	# of Permits Issued	Year Over Year % Change
2011	507	24.8%
2012	699	27.5%
2013	773	9.6%
2014	748	(4.0%)
2015	1,106	45%
2016	1,520	37%
2017	2,195	45%
2018	568 (thru March)	18%

Current estimates for 2018 call for over 2,500 permits. With an average of just over 3 persons per unit, 2,500 new permits would ultimately translate into another 7,500 residents.
